

River Thames – river restriction

Henley Reach

Henley Business School to the Phyllis Court Club

Saturday 18 February 2017 – 9am to 4pm

Henley Fours and Eights Head Race

Directions for navigation and general information during this event:

- The navigation channel shall be established along the centre of the river. All non-racing boat traffic must pass on Buckinghamshire, Fawley Court, right side of Temple Island.
- Crews will make their way to the start, which is opposite Henley Business School, along the Buckinghamshire, Fawley Court, right bank. Racing crews will boat along the Berkshire, Remenham, left side of the river.
- Regatta boards will mark the upstream and downstream extent of the course.
- Masters of all boats to maintain a safe speed and lookout between the Henley Business School and the Phyllis Court Club.
- All boats must be navigated in accordance with any instructions given from Environment Agency control points or patrol launches.
- Those in charge of boats should be aware that they are responsible for avoiding collision and should use all available means appropriate to the circumstances and conditions to decide if there is a risk of immediate danger and avoid it.
- Bathing is not allowed in the river on the course during the hours of racing.

PTO:

Nothing contained in these directions shall supersede those parts of the Thames Navigation Licensing and General Byelaws 1993 as may be relevant.

And Notice is hereby given, that it is provided by Byelaw 52 of the Thames Navigation Licensing and General Byelaws, 1993 that:

The master of any vessel shall except in an emergency not pass any boat-race regatta public procession or gathering for the launch of a vessel or any other event or function which may cause a crowd to assemble on or by the river nor station his vessel thereon in such a manner as would risk obstructing impeding or interfering with such boat-race regatta procession launching event or function or endangering the safety of persons assembling on the river or preventing or interfering with the maintenance of order thereon.

The maximum penalty for breach of the Byelaws is £1,000
